Sub: Intimation regarding unsocial activities happening on road

Respected Sir,

This is to inform you that today about 4 pm Sidhu ( Tapan Tudu) s/o. Late Ganesh Tudu of village- Areakusum put a tractor on the middle of road approx 100 meters distance from the railway line and so the road was totally blocked. When the matter came to our knowledge we reached on the spot and try to convince him we also request him to remove his tractor from the road and come to office for any discussion but as he was on drunken condition he denied to doing so. After that we make a phone call to your good office and your officials came discussed with him and about 6 pm he removed his tractor from the road then road is opened. In this duration of 2 Hrs. all the vehicle of our coal rack and other vehicles were totally stopped and due to this our Company faced huge monetary losses, which is approx Rs 5 Lakhs.

Moreover we like to inform you that, in the past this person always disturb us without any constructive issue. He comes to our factory gate and makes obstructions of our regular activities.

We therefore request your good-self kindly look into the matter and take necessary step so that we can run our factory and as well as our regular activities smoothly.

Your sympathetic action in this regard is highly solicited.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

For Shakambhari Ispat & Power Ltd.
