The first part of the paper is very easy and contains many questions which are very simple and can be solved in a few minutes. The second part is a bit more difficult and contains some questions which require some thought and calculation. The third part is the most difficult and
 a good understanding of the subject.
 The paper is a good test of your knowledge and skills. It is a good idea to practice these questions before the exam. This will help you to become familiar with the type of questions that you will be asked.
 It will also help you to improve your speed and accuracy. Good luck!
