4. That the in-laws of the petitioner named above were not satisfied with the dowry articles and they started mocking at her regarding the quality of those articles and had asked her to tell her father to pay Rs. 10,00,000/- to meet up further demand and when she had refuse to tell the same to her father they started abusing her and treating me badly . the petitioner had reported the matter to her husband but he remained indifferent and asked the petitioner to adjust with them. This state of affairs had continue for about six months and at that time the petitioner became pregnant and the Doctor had advise to take complete bed rest and as there is none to look after the petitioner and she had to take shelter at her father's place.
5. That on 11/6/13 the petitioner gave birth to a girl child, namely Ishani Shaw at K.M. memorial Hospital, Bokaro and the father of the petitioner had to bear all the medical expenses and two month thereafter the petitioner had joined her matrimonial home but the accused persons were not happy and started abusing her for giving birth to a girl child

- to a female child. When the petitioner had refused to do so, the accused No. 1 and others used to inflict physical as well mental torture and all these lead the petitioner to think of committing suicide, but considering the condition of her child she had restrained herself from doing so.
9. That the petitioner had to do all the daily work for the household after completion of her job in the Bank. The accused No.1 had pressurized the petitioner to withdraw money from my account.
10. That on 30.12.2018, the friends and family of my accused No.1 had arranged for a picnic at "Poprakoncha Dam" and the accused No. 1 was not inclined to take the petitioner there but as his friends and their family members had requested him to take the petitioner and her daughter, he ultimately took us. But at the picnic spot misbehaved and insulted the petitioner.
11. That on 31.12.2018, after her return to the flat from her bank, the petitioner found that the locks of the main door were changed and she could not enter into the flat and all of her personal effects are lying there (a list of the main items is given). The petitioner had made calls to her husband and the accused persons, to which they did not respond, ultimately she went to my father's house at Sarat Sen Compound, as her father used to take her daughter from the schools.
