Sub: Report Regarding Theft In Our House

Sir,

I have to lodge a complaint about an unfortunate theft that took place in our house last night . No one has been staying in the house for last few days . There are five rooms on the ground floor in which we keep two Almirahs , one Showcase , some utensils made of brass or stainless steel and some valuable articles and documents . The thief / thieves broke open the lock of Almirahs and Showcase and robbed two gold-made chains , three set of golden Ear-rings (approximate 55 grams) , all brass-made utensils with ten costly sarees and some valuable articles and documents . They also took Rs. 35000/- cash and made the whole house a mess .

We came to know about the theft in the afternoon that is today . Please treat this note as an official complaint and record it in F.I.R . You are requested to find out a clue to this heinous theft and take necessary legal action in this regard .

Please acknowledge receipt of this complaint , quoting the F.I.R number with date assigned to it . Thanking you .

Yours Faithfully

Rajul Chatterjee
