Sub: Intimation regarding unsocial activities happening in our water pipe line.

Respected Sir,

With reference to our earlier letter dated 23.03.17 we like to inform you that, again on yesterday night somebody broken our pipeline near Area kusum village primary school. Sir, for your information, some unsocial elements creating disturbance in our pipe line on the way to our factory. Since last three/four days they make this happen at night in between Mekatala rail gate to our factory road railway crossing and as a result the production & other activities of our factory is badly suffering due to shortage of water.

Sir, one more thing we brought to your kind notice that, there is a kuchha road for come to our factory from pukka road. The periodical mainlenance of the said road is done by us. Recently some earth excavation was done to one side of the aforesaid road by PHE department for laying water supply pipeline. After doing the job by PHE when our Company tries to make repair & set right the road again, some people of Area kusum village are giving obstruction for doing the job.

We therefore request your good-self kindly look into the matter and take necessary step so that we can run our factory and as well as regular activities smoothly.

Your sympathetic action in this regard is highly solicited.

Thanking you,
Yours faithfully,
For Shakambhari Ispat & Power Ltd.
