REF. NO. 485
DATE 09.09.2022

Sub.: Intimation of theft occurred at Medical Unit of STPS.

Sir,

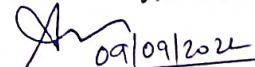

Today (09.09.2022) at about 08:00 A.M. Sri Subrata Mukherjee, Late Anil Kumar Mukherjee of Post & Village –Boral, Majher Para, P.S. Narendrapur, Dist – South 24 Parganas, EMP No. 1931, the Laboratory Technician, while entering into the Laboratory Room at the Medical Unit of STPS Township, P.S. – Santaldih, Dist- Purulia, observed that the room is locked from inside. The situation was quite uncommon. Immediately Sri Mukherjee called other staff / personnel available at the Medical Unit at that time. Immediately Sri Mukherjee also called Sri Dipankar Mondal, Ex-Unarmed Security Personnel engaged by M/s Espy Protection Pvt. Ltd. Sri Dipankar Mondal, Ex-Unarmed Security Personnel push the door and also found that the door is locked from inside. Finding no alternative, Sri Mondal went to the backside of the Laboratory Room and found that the window of the Laboratory Room is broken.

Sri Dipankar Mondal, Ex-Unarmed Security Personnel requested one support staff engaged at STPS Medical Unit namely Sri Sambhu Mahali, Son of Lt. Sakari Mahali to enter into the Laboratory Room through the broken window and open the lock of the Laboratory Room. Sri Mahali accordingly entered into the Laboratory Room from backside of the Laboratory Room through the broken window and opened the door lock. After that, Sri Subrata Mukherjee, Sri Dipankar Mondal, Ex-Unarmed Security Personnel and other staffs who were present at that time entered into the Laboratory Room and found that one Almirah is broken. Sri Subrata Mukherjee confirmed that some of the staffs of Medical Unit used to run some employee benefits fund at Medical Unit, STPS and the contribution collected from the members has been kept by him into the particular Almirah as the acting custodian, which has been found broken. On verification, he found that an amount of Rs 15,820 /- was stolen away from the broken almirah by unknown miscreants. Later on, the above fact has been reported to the undersigned verbally.

Accordingly, undersigned informed the same over phone immediately and submitting this statement subsequently for further needful.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
